The clerk informed the committee that there were no neighbourhood comments on this application. The plans were viewed by those present and discussed.

It was resolved that there were no objections to application WD/2011/1839/F).
VOTE All in favour

WD/2011/1871/F 11 North Close, Polegate BN26 6HH

Proposed extensions to the side and rear, loft conversion with gable end roof extensions, rear dormers, roof windows and alterations.

Cllr M Pybus arrived at 19.35

A discussion took place regarding the size and overall impact of the development. A proposal for no objections was raised. VOTE 2 for 4 against 2 abstentions Motion lost

A further discussion took place on possible reasons for objections.

Standing orders were suspended whilst the applicant in the public gallery commented on the size of the dormer and the attempt to lessen any impact on neighbouring properties.

Standing orders reinstated

It was resolved to object to application WD/2011/1871/F on the grounds of overdevelopment, out of keeping with neighbouring properties and over dominant roofline - contrary to EN27(1) & (2) of the Wealden Local plan and contrary to BE(1) & (2) on the non statutory Wealden local plan. VOTE 4 for 2 against 2 abstentions

WD/2011/1899/F Robin Bank, Dittons Road, Polegate BN26 6JG
Demolition of existing single garage. Proposed double garage with annexe over.

The plans were viewed and a detailed discussion took place on the position of the development, and being in the back garden. Concerns were raised on the likelihood on the development becoming separate from the title deeds of the main property and being rented out as a separate property.

It was resolved to object on the grounds of the application being an unacceptable backland development contrary to EN27(4) of the Wealden Local Plan. A further comment was made that at no time should the title deeds be split from the main property. VOTE 7 for 1 against.
